Spokane police officers located a large amount of a substance that appeared to be methamphetamine. A field test on the substance indicated the substance tested positive for methamphetamine.

2

Mandatory Condition # 1: You must not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

Supporting Evidence: It is alleged that Mr. Jordan violated the terms of his supervised release by committing the offense of criminal mischief on or about December 21, 2019, a direct violation of mandatory condition number 1.

On September 12, 2019, Michael Jordan signed his judgment for case number 2:11CR00195-EFS-1, indicating he understood his conditions of supervised release. Specifically, Mr. Jordan was made aware that he must obey all laws while on supervised release.

On December 21, 2019, per SPD report number 2019-20237559, Mr. Jordan was arrested on charges of first degree assault, second degree assault, harassment, and possession of a controlled substance. SPD report number 2019-20237559 indicated the owner of a Dodge Dakota saw a person outside her residence shining a flashlight inside her vehicle. She went to confront the person, later identified as Mr. Jordan, at which time he hit her in the face. Mr. Jordan attempted to flee the scene; however, the victim's son ran after him and eventually caught up to Mr. Jordan. At that time, Mr. Jordan turned toward him and pointed, what he believed to be a gun at him. The item was slapped out of Mr. Jordan's hand. Mr. Jordan stated, "I'm going to fucking shoot you if you don't stop!" Mr. Jordan then continued to flee the scene, but was later apprehended by Spokane police and arrested on the aforementioned charges.

Per Spokane County Superior Court judgment case number 19-1-0483432, on March 1, 2021, Mr. Jordan entered a guilty plea to an amended charge of criminal mischief in Spokane County Superior Court for the conduct that occurred on December 21, 2019. Mr. Jordan was sentenced to time served of 12 months imprisonment.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court accept the revised petition.
